Redflex executes New Photo Enforcement Contract in the City of McKinney, Texas

23 February 2007

Redflex Traffic Systems Inc, a wholly owned subsidiary of Redflex Holdings Limited, is pleased to announce the execution of a new contract with the City of McKinney, Texas

The City of McKinney, Texas

The City of McKinney is the county seat of Collin County and has a fulltime population in excess of 100,000. According to recent census data, this northern Dallas suburb is the fastest growing city in the USA for cities of similar populations.

Redflex was awarded this contract as a result of a comprehensive tender process.

The contract is for up to 30 intersections with a term of three years plus three, one-year automatic renewals.

“The contract with the City of McKinney marks the 14th Texas contract executed by Redflex since the beginning of the financial year 2007. It represents a very positive trend for us across this critical and rapidly expanding market” said Karen Finley, CEO of Redflex Traffic Systems

Redflex Traffic Systems Inc has contracts with more than 100 USA cities, and is the largest provider of digital red light and speed enforcement services in North America. With photo speed programs in 9 states and photo red light programs across 17 states, Redflex has led the market in installed systems, installation rate and market share over the past 12 months.
