Redflex Executes Three New Photo Enforcement Contracts

19 June 2007

Redflex Traffic Systems Inc, a wholly owned subsidiary of Redflex Holdings Limited, is pleased to announce the execution of three new photo enforcement contracts which include the cities of Redwood City, California, North Chicago, Illinois, and North Riverside, Illinois.

Redwood City, California

Redwood City has a daytime population in excess of 85,000 and is located in San Mateo County.

This contract was awarded to Redflex as a result of a competitive tender process.

The contract is for the enforcement of up to 10 intersections with a term of five years, plus two two-year automatic renewals.

North Chicago, Illinois

North Chicago has a fulltime population of approximately 35,000 and is located in Lake County.

The contract is for enforcement of up to 20 intersections with a term of five years.

North Riverside, Illinois

North Riverside is a Chicago suburb located in Cook County.

The contract is for enforcement of up to 20 intersections with a term of five years.

“As we quickly approach the close of our financial year, we are optimistic about maintaining our excellent momentum as we have delivered consistently over the last year. We have maintained focus and achieved an increased market share in both Illinois and California, two of the fastest growing markets in the USA” said Karen Finley, CEO.

Redflex Traffic Systems Inc has contracts with more than 140 USA cities and is the largest provider of digital red light and speed enforcement services in North America. With photo speed programs in 9 states and photo red light programs across 18 states, Redflex leads the market in installed systems, installation rate of new systems, and market share.
