

Redflex Enters Northern Virginia and Extends Reach Across Texas with Two New Red-Light Enforcement Contracts – The Cities of Fairfax, Virginia and League City, Texas

13 March 2009

Redflex Traffic Systems, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Redflex Holdings Limited, is pleased to announce two new contract executions with the cities of Fairfax, Virginia and League City, Texas.

Fairfax, VA

With a daytime population in excess of 40,000 and located in Northern Virginia, Fairfax is part of the Washington metropolitan area that supports a population greater than 5 million.

The contract is for one year plus four automatic one-year renewals. The scope of the program is for 10 intersections.

This contract was awarded to Redflex resulting from a highly competitive public tender process.

“With heavy population densities and substantial red-light and speed market development opportunities, the expansion into the Mid-Atlantic, Northern Virginia and Washington D.C metropolitan areas is an important achievement for Redflex. We are confident that building out our footprint by fostering a world-class public safety program with the City of Fairfax will provide ample near and long-term opportunities to extend Redflex’s market leadership” said Karen Finley, CEO Redflex Traffic Systems.

League City, TX

This Houston suburb is located in Galveston and Harris Counties and maintains a population of approximately 70,000.

The contract is for a term of five years plus two, two-year automatic renewals. The scope of the program is for 40 systems.

Redflex Traffic Systems, Inc. has contracts with more than 235 U.S. cities, and is the largest provider of digital red light and speed enforcement services in North America. With photo speed programs in 9 states and photo red light programs across 22 states, REDFLEX has consistently led the market in contract wins, system installation rates and market share.
